

A B S T R A C T

A vehicle suspension including a subassembly 5 comprising a coil spring mounted between two supports of variable spacing. One of the supports (18) is constrained to move along a trajectory that is curved relative to the other support, and the pitch of an end portion of the corresponding end turn (20a) of the spring 10 (12) varies in a manner that is negative or zero.